COMMERCIAL LEASE AGREEMENT

This lease is entered into on _____, 20____ by and between
_____, referred to in this lease as "Landlord" and
_____, referred to in this lease as "Tenant".

ARTICLE 1
LEASE OF PREMISES AND TERM OF LEASE

Agreement to Lease Premises

Section 1.01. For and in consideration of the rents to be paid and covenants to be performed by Tenant under this lease, Landlord hereby leases to Tenant, and Tenant hereby leases from Landlord those certain premises (hereinafter "Premises") located in the City of _____, County of _____, State of California, commonly known as _____, containing approximately _____ square feet.

Net Rentable Area: The rentable area computed by measuring to the window glass of outer building walls, to the Premises side of public corridors and/or other permanent partitions and to the center of partitions which separate the adjoining rentable areas with no deduction for columns and projections necessary to the building structure. On multi-tenant floors, common corridors and toilets, air conditioning rooms, fan rooms, janitorial closets, electrical and telephone closets and any other areas within and exclusively serving that floor are considered common area and for purposes of this section shall be allocated prorata to the Tenants on the floor.

Another situation in which a company could be presumed to be insolvent is whether an order was issued to appoint a receiver to enforce a floating charge, and that person was designated to assume the possession of an asset of the company. Australia's Basic Elements Insolvency LawsOnce a company is determined to be insolvent, the company's assets and finances are evaluated to see if the company can recover and weather the financial crisis or if it has no realistic possibility to recover its financial viability. A secured creditor under a security agreement with the debtor company generally initiates this insolvency procedure. To make a trade it is necessary to enter the stock symbol and the number of actions in the indicated areas. Photo courtesy: Jernej Furman/Flickr Financial laws around the world can vary from those found in the United States In Australia, insolvency laws regulate the affairs of a company that can no longer pay its financial obligations. More than ASKMONEY.COM Any balance that remains after payment of the debts and expenses incurred while the company is liquidated is equally divided between the owners according to their rights and interests. In the Companies Act 2001 this person is called a controller. Another factor would be a dissatisfied trial — partly or in full — granted by a court in favour of the creditor. Australian law uses the term "insolvency" to refer to companies and bankruptcy in reference to individuals. Warning Signs for Insolvency A company becomes insolvent when it no longer has the resources to pay its creditors when credit or lump sum payments are due. You can buy shares in a public company and participate in the company's growth and receive any dividend that the company pays to shareholders. Tips If the public company is a small local company with unneeded uncheckered shares on the stock market, call the company and talk to the person with investors relationships.
